DIRECTOR

Breonda Ziegler has over 15 years working with clients in the education, oil & gas, transportation and consumer products industries. She routinely performs cost accounting, budgeting and fund accounting. Breonda has extensive experience directing the implementation of financial accounting systems, as well as associated interfaces and reports. She has managed hundreds of millions of dollars worth of fixed assets.

EXPERIENCE

Breonda has a great reputation for streamlining and automating manual and technological processes. Her consultative approach is comprehensive, educational and collaborative. She not only makes financial improvements and recommendations but ensures that her clients understand the reason for the change and how to maintain the changes in the future. She has created and effectively administered change management methodologies. In addition her process improvements skills have no boundaries; she recently led a project to map curriculum and technology to state standards and implemented new curriculum, leading to a 17% increase in national test scores.

As a business owner, Breonda is versed in all aspects of leading a profitable business. She knows the pressures and requirements of the small business executive while simultaneously knowing the best practices being used by Fortune 500 organizations.
