DIRECTOR

Brian Radermacher has over ten years of experience in the finance and small business sector. He has worked closely with small businesses around the region as a CPA, bank analyst, and operations manager. Brian understands the issues facing entrepreneurs, having owned and operated his own restaurant franchise. He joins CFO Systems to provide hands-on support to our small business customers through improved financial reporting, financial analysis and utilization of QuickBooks software.

EXPERIENCE

Brian works with small businesses to set up and manage their internal accounting functions. He focuses on finding and maximizing efficiencies within small businesses through the use of standardization and by developing internal processes that save clients both time and money. Brian offers a range of services to small business clients ranging from one-time QuickBooks consultations to full service accounting support where he manages the entire accounting function from setup through end-of-the-year filing requirements.

Brian is a Certified QuickBooks ProAdvisor and works extensively with clients in this area. In addition to answering day-to-day QuickBooks questions, Brian has developed project plans for the conversion of alternative accounting software systems to QuickBooks and has managed the conversion function, setup and training of all internal accounting staff for use on the new system. Brian also offers regular QuickBooks training classes to new and existing clients.
