DIRECTOR

Rick has over 30 years of experience specializing in construction, manufacturing, distribution, and financial services. His diverse background includes several leadership roles that include serving as CFO for companies ranging in size from $50M to a $1B subsidiary of a publicly traded company, and as Internal Audit Director of a publicly traded company with worldwide operations. Rick has also served on the Board of Directors of privately-held companies and not-for-profit organizations. Throughout his career, he has been focused on providing effective and creative solutions to complex business issues.

EXPERIENCE

Rick's roles as Senior Vice President/Chief Financial Officer, Director of Internal Audit, and Senior Manager of a professional services firm have provided him with experience managing business functions nationwide with finance staffing levels in excess of 100 people to those of small family-held businesses with fewer than 200 employees. His background also includes responsibilities identifying key operational and financial metrics that assisted an organization in achieving its goals and objectives, managing multiple ERP and new billing systems implementations, and utilizing technology to deliver results. At CFO Systems, Rick brings value to each of his clients through strategic thinking and a passion for implementing new ideas.
